To Whom It May Concern,

Over 3 days in February 2010 "Deliquent Gourmet" shot an episode following their host, Chef Gord Martin, as he went on culinary adventures in and around Playa Del Carmen and Chichen Itza. Originally looking for a driver/fixer, Rene Blanco soon became much more. The services provided by Rene were invaluable to a low budget and time starved production!

Rene helped us find and secure locations, scouting and sending several options by email for us to review. While shooting Rene provided transport and assistance to our tiny documentary crew.

Rene and his team were honest, hard working and always had the best interests of our production in mind.

Rene was in constant contact, providing updates and checking in with us at our Toronto office prior to our crew's departure. Rene helped put our minds at ease that everything was set up and would be ready to shoot when our crew arrived.

I would highly recommend Rene Blanco and Riviera Maya Films to any other productions looking for assistance while filming in Mexico.

Sincerely,

Allegra Hill
