To Whom It May Concern,

I had the pleasure of working with Rene Blanco and Riviera Maya Films on a feature film I produced entitled JAMES WHITE. We had to do 5 days of filming in Tulum, Mexico and did not have a lot of time to prepare due to the independent nature of our film. Rene was able to guide us through the different iterations of the budgets, all of the permitting, and all of the local casting, in advance of our arrival. Once we arrived he was extremely flexible and accommodating as we figured out exactly how to film what we wanted. His attention to us and making sure we captured what we needed to capture (and staying on budget) was critical to the success of the film.
